

My parents drive a truck for a living; they listen to the xm radio to get traffic and weather report; so they will know what the traffic and weather report is like to the city they are delivering to. If they didn't have that things could be bad